

APUSH summer assignment: Email a picture of yourself at an historical site to Mr. MacLeod. An historical site would be classified as a place that is preserved due to a social, political, military, or cultural event that occurred there. Local examples include the James J. Hill house, Fort Snelling, or the Minnehaha Depot. National examples include Pearl Harbor, Lincoln Memorial, or the Liberty Bell. You might have a picture from years past OR you might have to go visit one this summer, either way I want see you being historical!
Email tmacleod@stanthony.k12.mn.us - make sure you list the historical site and your name.
